

Answer these questions:

What strategies were described or demonstrated in the video that helped kids who were bullied?

Which strategies might you use to stand up for someone who is being bullied?

These statements were made in the video. Do you believe these statements are true? Why or why not?

1. If a target hurts her/himself, it's not the bystanders fault.
2. When a bystander steps in, the bullying usually stops within seconds.
3. Let someone help you if you can't stand up for yourself.

Do you think kids in our school use any of these reasons for not taking action?

1. You don't want someone who bullies to turn on you if you speak up.
2. There's nothing you can do about it.
3. There's a stigma of going to teachers with these things.

What do you think can be done to get the bystanders in this school to stand up for students who are being mistreated?
