

Key Information: Avoiding Infectious Diseases

Include the following information in your presentation to your group.

How are common infectious diseases transmitted?

• What health practices can prevent the spread of illness? Which do you think are most important?

Create a catchy slogan that states a major message for this health habit.